Shot a Negro, But Didn't Kill Him.

respondence of the Gazette. FAIRFIELD, FREESTONE COUNTY, TEX., une 16.—Yesterday Mr. Nelson Odom, living about five miles from Fairfield, shot and attempted to kill one Jerry Price, a ne-gro, for the seduction of his sister, a girl about sixteen years old. Mr. Odom made about sixteen years old. Mr. Odom made the discovery yesterday that his sister was enciente and demanded of her the author of her disgrace. She confessed and told her brother that it was Jerry Price. Mr. Odom got his Winchester and went to the field where the negro was at work with the de-termination to bill him. He fixed on the termination to kill him. He fired on the negro brute when about fifteen steps from him, and the negro whirled and ran, placing his hands on his stomach as if the ball had struck him there. Mr. Odom attempted to shoot again, but the shell hung, and the fiend scaped. Mr. Odom at once came to and reported what he had done. The sheriff went out, but failed to find the negro. Those who saw the negro after he sheriff went out, but laned to had the he-gro. Those who saw the negro after he was shot, state that he was shot in the calf of the left leg. The girl says the negro forced herto yield to his evil passion, and told her if she reveyled it he would kill her. He told those who saw him after the shooting that he had been intimate with the girl for over a year.

State of Louisiana Intervenes

New Orleans, La., June 19.—In the succession of the late widow of Bertrand Salvy, worth $700,000, judgment was given a few days ago putting the heirs in possession. To-day before the judgment was executed the state of Louisiana intervened, claiming to be the sole heir because the deceased was illegitimate. Her mother was a mar-ried woman and ran away from Havanua to New Orleans with Antonio Carcagno and she was their child. Under the Louisiana law the parties who ought to inherit are barred because of the taint of bastardy which the state alleges.

Eczema by One Set Cuticura, After Using Many Medicines Without Relief.

Although I have very little faith in patent medicines. I bought one-half dozen bottles Sarsaparilla and one-half dozen bottles Sarsaparilla for eczema or prurigo. Nothing gave me relief; and having served a number of years in the Regular Army, which entitles me to the Soldiers' Home at Washington. I went there, and there I came across your valuable Cutricura Remedies. I bought a box of Cutricura, a cake of Cutricura Soap, and a bottle of Cutricura Resolvent, and after taking them and following the directions to the letter, I feel and book as well as a new-born baby by a healthy mother. I do not exaggerate it one bit when I say they have been worth to me their weight in gold.
